

GLOBAL HEALTH SEMINAR SERIES

COVID-19 Vaccination:

The Promised Land?

DATE: 4 Mar 2021

TIME: 2pm - 3pm

VENUE: Zoom

ABSTRACT

The COVID-19 pandemic has, in just over a year, disrupted countless number of lives and global economies. Many long for a return to the pre-pandemic way of life. With the arrival of licensed COVID-19 vaccines, vaccination programmes hold the potential promise of protecting global population against this fearsome disease. In this talk and conversation, we will discuss the science of vaccines and vaccination, vaccine-associated adverse events and how we can develop the body of evidence to make safer and even better vaccines for the future.
