

GOODBYE, COVID

*Hey Covid,
As you rage
Your perils are vivid
We cower in fear
When you are near*

*Math now can't keep count
As you rise exponentially
Encaging the world
You are too bold!*

*Are you Sars descendent?
In 2020 turned transcendent
Omnipresent, you made us vigilant*

*Meals are now takeaway
One metre apart
We keep you at bay
Enough of your temporary stay
We are armoured to send you away*

*We will turn the tide
Working double tides
In our protective gears
With our true mettle
To fight this battle
Till you are banished*

*Rising with rays of hope
We were sure we could cope
You started visiting dorms
Challenging us
To show our best form
And sent a new wave*

*Many lessons were learnt
As you kept charging
In frantic pace
We were sure
Not to quit this race*

*In our best form
We will surely
Win this fight
With all our might
To turn things right*

*Undeterred, we will press on Victoriously, we will rise
And bid you, goodbye*
