

THE MIRACLE OF LIFE

By Ying Pin, Toh

Let us take time to hold in our hands, life and living
Feeling the texture, the fabric of each moment
Moments flowing into minutes, into hours, into days
A lifespan a small cubit of eternity
Our breaths in and out, each breath the miracle of life, a piece of infinity
Wonder that comes with not being able to fully comprehend
The grand majesty of being
So, hush, quieten down
Breathe
Be here and now
